

2.7 Model Maintenance

The adoption of a strategy for model management is critical for an efficient BIM workflow. Effective management is required to ensure that the model data remains coordinated, well-structured, and efficient.

Refer to the SFO Model Verification Standard in the appendix for more details.