

16.1 Survey Layers

Features that have been surveyed by a registered land surveyor should be represented by objects on layers where a "V" is used in place of the discipline code. The remaining elements of the layer name shall be as described above and as listed in Appendix F. Care should be taken to ensure that features that have not been surveyed are not represented on layers that begin with a "V."