

CHAPTER 2: BUILDING LEVEL AND SPACE NUMBERING

Introduction

The Airport's Building Level and Space Numbering convention shall be followed throughout the Airport's building campus, unless otherwise specified. The purpose of this space numbering convention is to standardize all spaces, as defined; within both the physical and virtual environments. This convention provides a universal numbering system that is to be applied consistently to all existing and future Airport's spaces.