

6.3 Schedules and Coordination Schedules

Schedules and coordination schedules are Revit schedules created with SFO shared parameters to allow for bidirectional communication between the scheduled values and the shared parameters contained within the equipment families