

2.1.2 National CAD Standard

The National CAD Standard (NCS) is the foundation that the SFO Surveying Department uses for capturing data in the field using GPS and Total Station technology (Leica Systems standard software/hardware), field surveys for descriptor key acronyms/terminology, horizontal, and vertical accuracy requirements, acceptable formats, CAD symbology (blocks) layering, coordinate systems, etc.