4.2.6 Quality Control Findings

All data items that have been flagged from the quality control processes will be documented in a quality control report/memo. If the dataset fails the quality control criteria, the dataset will be returned to the Data Provider for correction. All updated data must be resubmitted by the Data Provider for SFO acceptance testing until it passes the criteria defined in this Standard and QC Plan.