5.2.5 Object Styles

The Object Styles dialog box specifies the project-level settings of Line Weight, line color, line patters and default materials for the different categories and subcategories of model elements, annotations and imported objects in a project. Projects created with the SFO template will receive the SFO preferred object style definitions. The published appearance of modelled components shall be consistent across models, hence do not modify a project Object Styles unless approved by project BIM coordinator.